

True Supernatural Accounts<sup>1</sup>

True Account #1

John is not a Christian. He lives in Hong Kong and went to see a very well known fortune teller who is blind. Without having been given any information, the fortune teller was able to describe John's apartment in great detail. He correctly told John that when you walk in to the apartment the fridge is immediately to the right, the lounge to the left etc. John was so impressed that when his brother (who is a Christian) arrived from Australia to visit, he took him along also to the fortune teller. John's brother went in and sat down. Again without being given any information, the fortune teller said "I am sorry, I cannot help you because you are a Christian."

True Account #2

Raj lives in Fiji and grew up in a Hindu family. Like most Fijian Hindus, his family kept a statue of one of their many gods in their front yard. Each day they burnt incense and offered fruit to it. At the same time, Raj also began attending the local church and investigating who Jesus is. Raj was often able to attend church normally. On some occasions however he did not appear to be himself. Sometimes when he tried to say the name 'Jesus' his jaw would seize up so he could not speak the word and his eyes would glaze over.
